

The One by One mark and slogan

Three ripples spreading from one person, like a stone dropped into still water. Each ring is heavy on one side and fades to a hairline on the other, like arms wrapped round someone; the centre suggests a person seen from above. Each ring's colour matches its phrase in the slogan.

One by One

One step. One name. One friend.

Coming unto Christ in His holy house

PAISLEY STAKE

One by One

One step. One name. One friend.

Coming unto Christ in His holy house

PAISLEY STAKE

One by One

One step. One name. One friend.

Coming unto Christ in His holy house

PAISLEY STAKE

Navy #16233F
One step · Myself · inner ring

Gold #A8822E
One name · My ancestors · middle ring

Soft blue #6E8BB5
One friend · My friends · outer ring

Ivory #F7F3EA
Paper; inner ring and centre on navy

Three circles

One step: Myself. What is my next step towards the temple?

One name: My ancestors. Whom in my family can I serve?

One friend: My friends. Whom can I prayerfully help?

Type and use

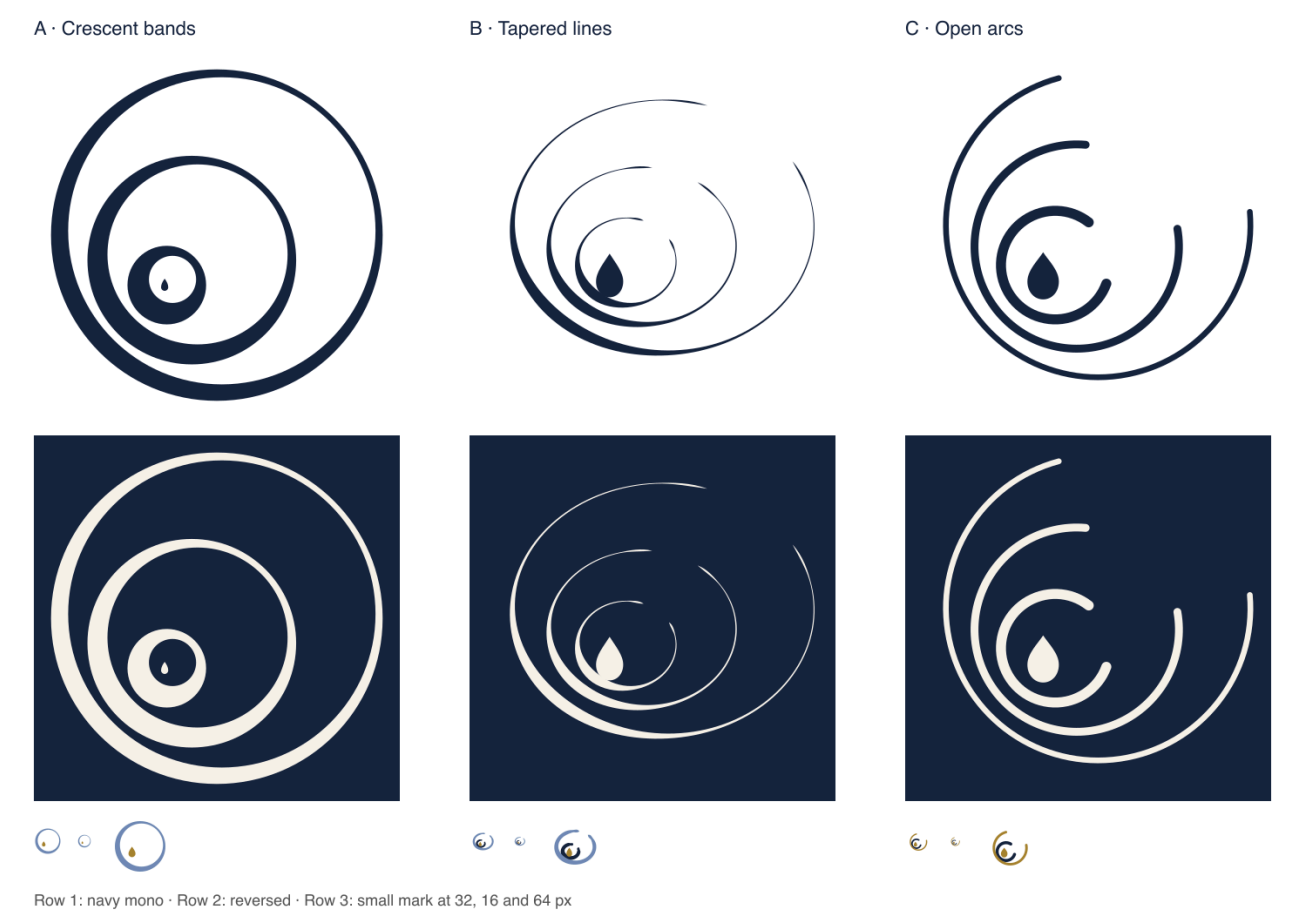

Cormorant Garamond for display, Public Sans for text. Every piece says "Paisley Stake" and carries no Church logo, so it is never mistaken for Europe North Area material.

"2027 Year of the Temple" and "One by One" are the Area's language; the circles, slogan and mark are the stake's.

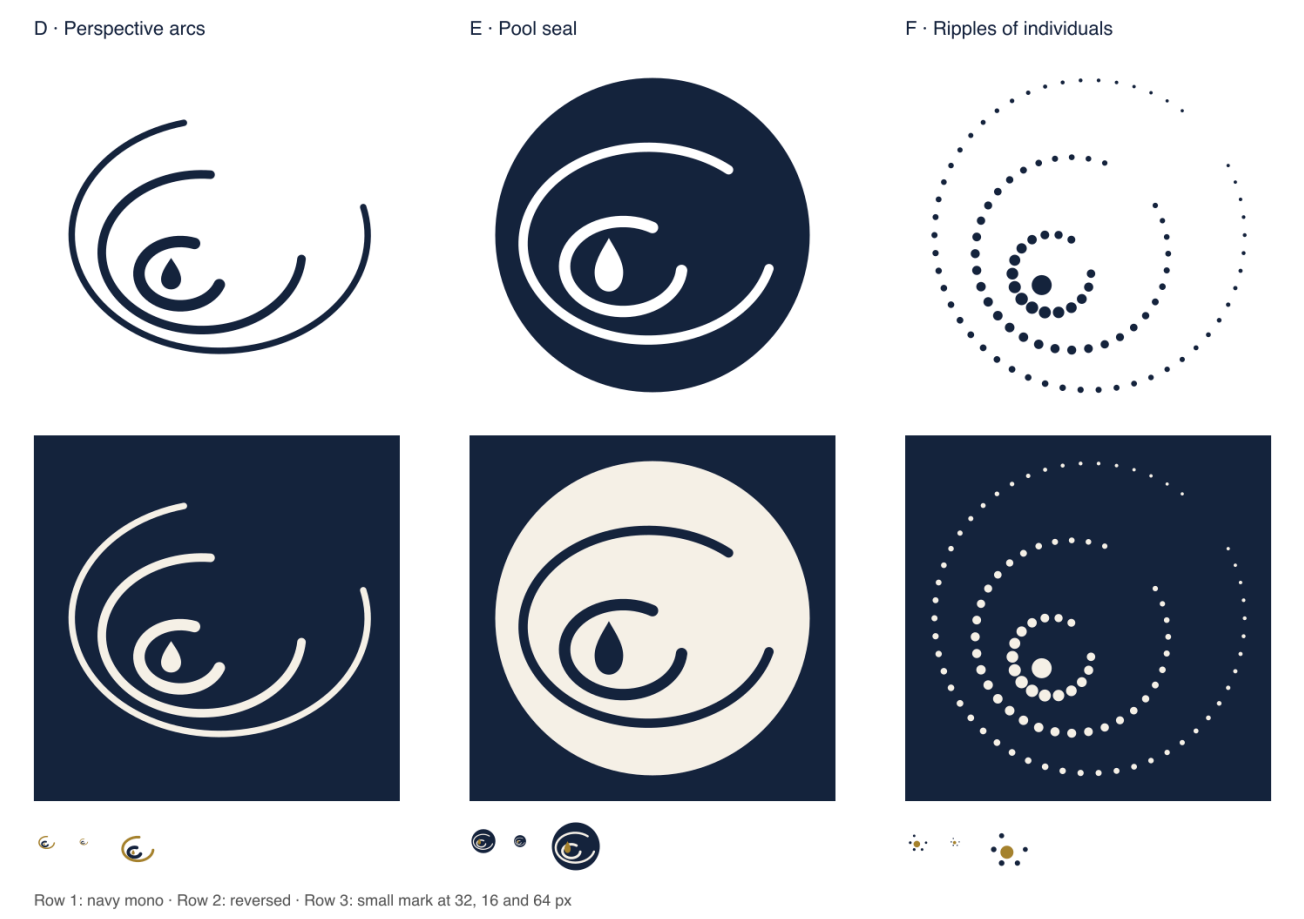

HOW WE GOT HERE

Six first ideas, one chosen

Six directions were drawn for the ripple mark. Option A (crescent bands) was chosen and developed into "Embrace": the rings taper so they read as arms around a person, and the centre became a navy ellipse. The final version tightens the gaps in the outer two rings so the three read as one family.

Options A to C: crescent bands, tapered lines, open arcs.

Options D to F: perspective arcs, pool seal, individuals.

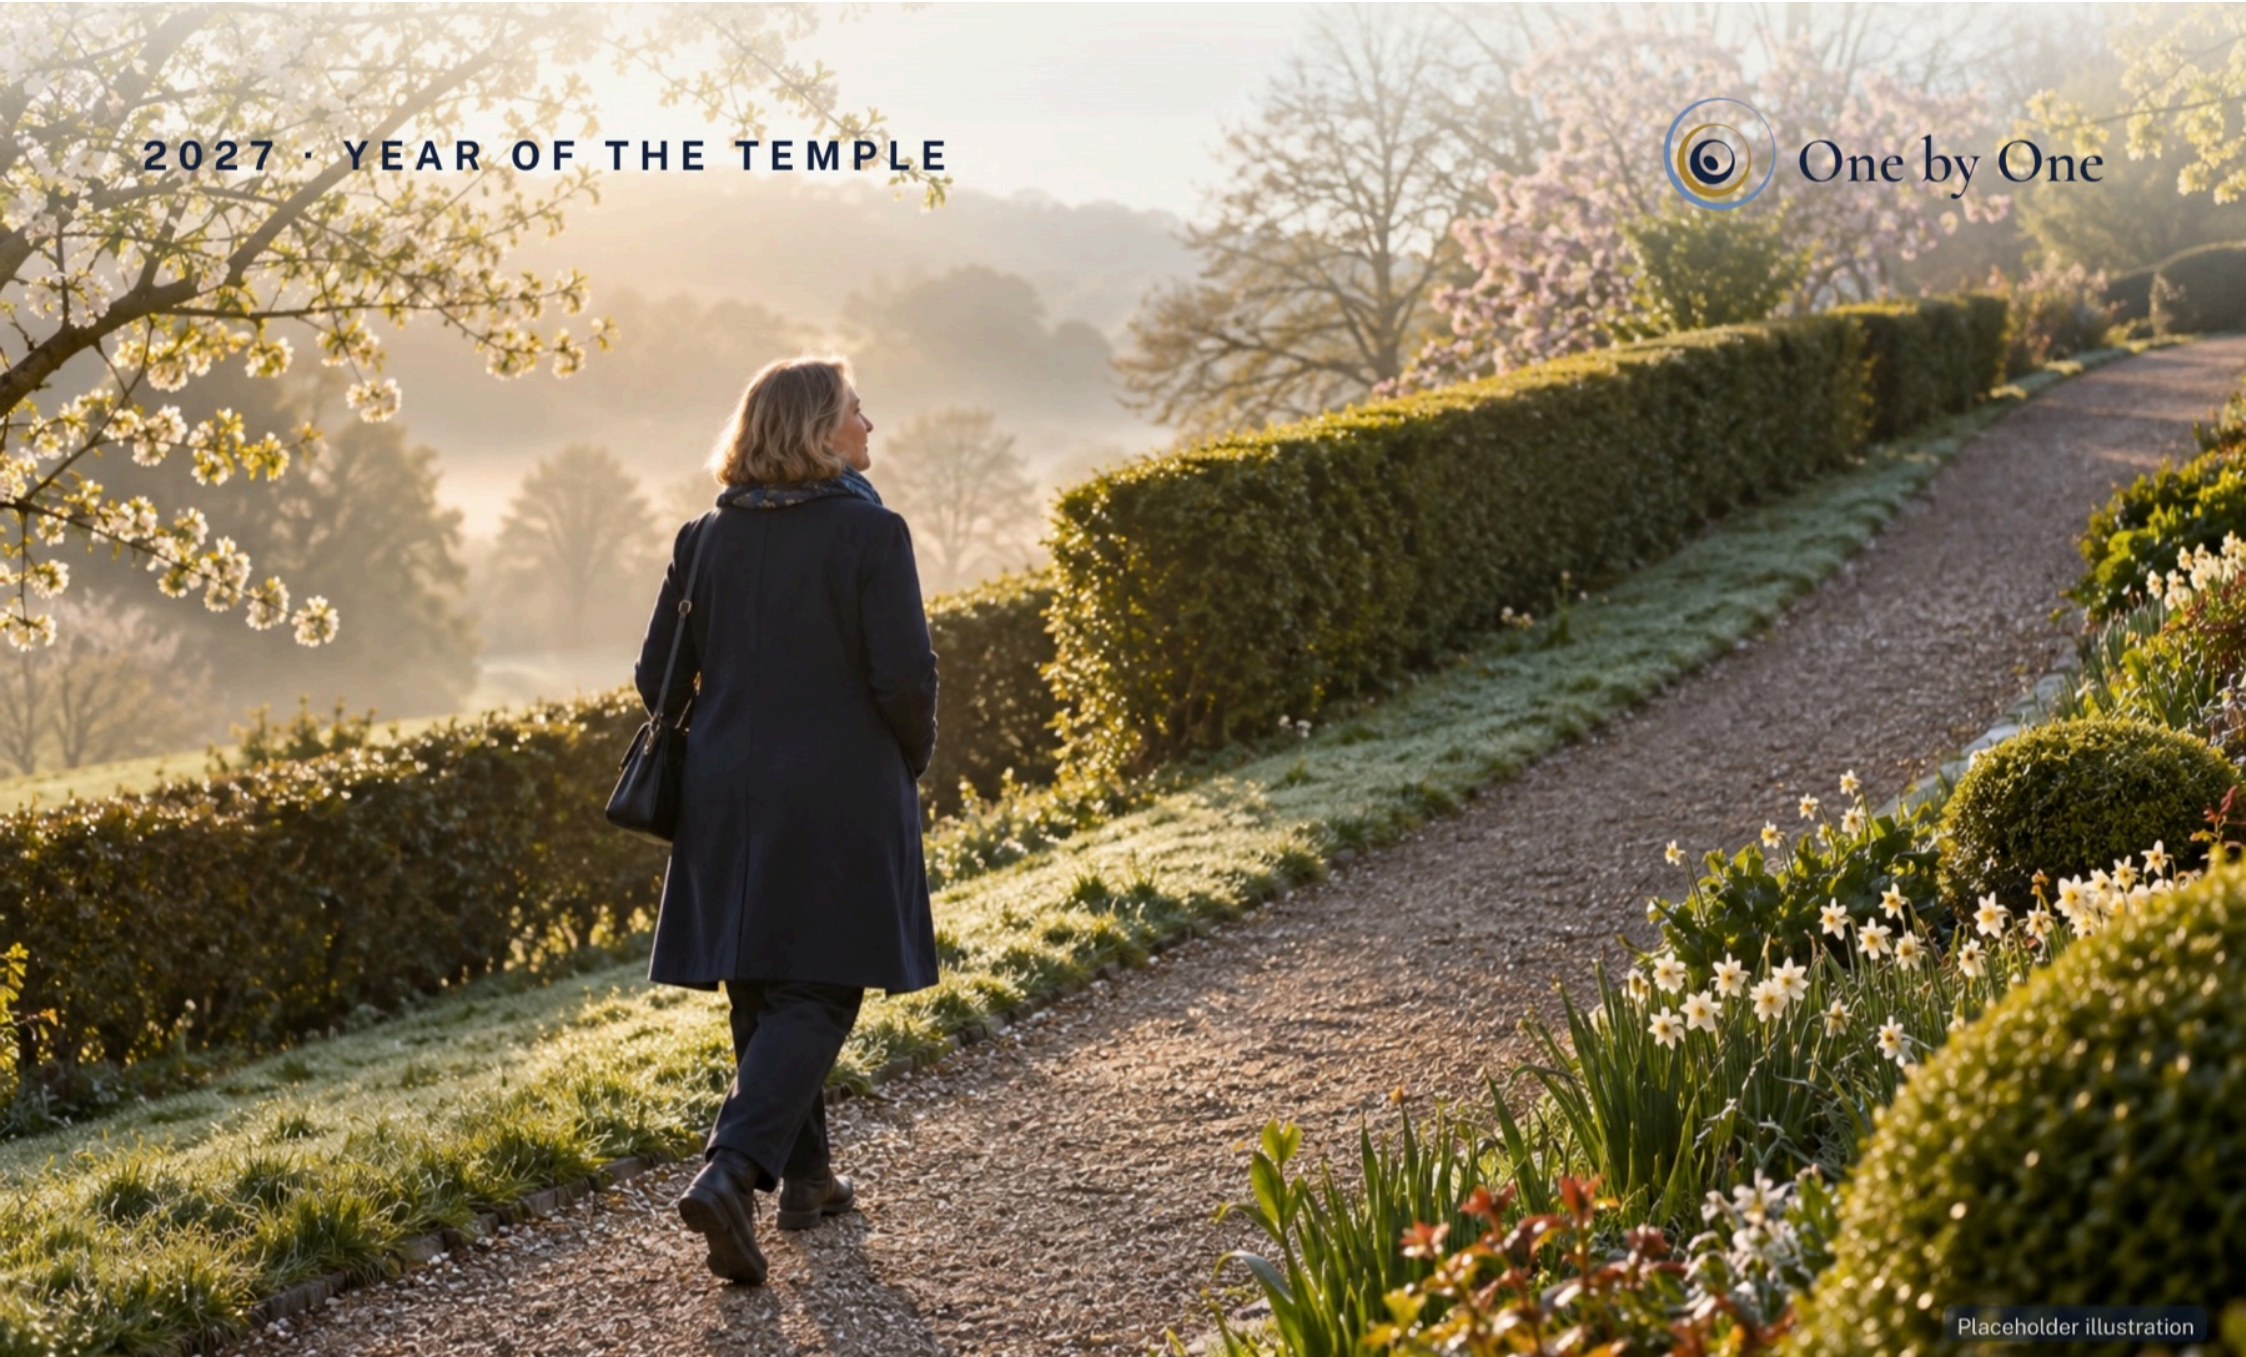

One step. One name. One friend.

Coming closer to Jesus Christ through His holy house, and helping someone else do the same.

One by One
Coming unto Christ in His holy house

What is my next temple step, and whom can I help take theirs?

Placeholder illustration

● MYSELF

What is my next step?

A first visit. A renewed recommend. Coming back after years away. The endowment. A sealing. Simply going more often.

Not sure? Talk with your bishop, or with a friend who has been. Nobody has to take this step alone.

● MY ANCESTORS

One name. One story. One ordinance.

You don't need to be a researcher. Someone will sit with you and help you find one person in your family whom you can serve in the temple.

Ask for your ward's temple and family history consultant. One evening, one name. That is enough to begin.

Placeholder illustration

● MY FRIENDS

Take one with you.

A youth going for the first time. A new member. Someone coming back. Someone without a lift. Who could go with you?

Book two seats on your ward's coach at trips.dotiai.uk, then ask. "When would you like to go, and how can I help?"