

The 2027 tour T-shirt

A band's tour shirt carries the band's name and logo on the front and the tour dates on the back. Ours is the youth of the Paisley Stake of Zion, on tour to the House of the Lord. Where the tour dates would be, each young person writes, in permanent fabric marker, the names of the ancestors they have found and taken to the temple for baptism. By December 2027 the shirt is a personal record of the good they have done, one name at a time.

How it works

Shirts are given out at each unit's first youth temple trip of 2027. After each trip, the youth add the names they took, with a parent or leader if they like. Worn to youth activities and temple trips through the year.

Guidelines

Deceased ancestors only, from the young person's own family tree, after the ordinances are reserved in FamilySearch. No living friends' names. No scores or comparisons between youth or units.

Making it last

Use a permanent fabric marker (Sharpie Stained or Pentel fabric marker). Heat-set each new name with a dry iron through a cloth. Wash inside out, cool. Light blanks so the writing shows.

Three draft concepts follow. Each is a print-ready vector file (front 12 × 16 in, back 12 × 14 in, all text outlined, three inks for screen printing) in `tshirts/<concept>/front.svg` and `back.svg`. The names in the mock-ups are fictional examples. No Church logo is used; every piece is marked Paisley Stake.

CONCEPT A

The 2027 Tour

Blank Natural Inks navy, gold, soft blue Back 36 lines, 0.5 in apart

A classic arena-tour shirt. The mark at stadium scale under the band name; on the back, the year as twelve tour legs, January to December, three names a month.

CONCEPT B

Setlist

Blank Heather Oatmeal Inks navy, gold, soft blue Back 40 lines + encore, 0.45 in apart

A punchy gig shirt: the slogan stacked big in its three colours. On the back, a handwritten-style setlist, numbered 01 to 40, with an encore line for one more.

CONCEPT C

Paisley to Preston

Blank Light Heather Blue Inks navy, gold, soft blue Back 40 lines, 0.55 in apart

A heritage road-trip badge, because the stake travels to the temple by coach. On the back, the road from Paisley to the Preston England Temple, with a name at every milestone.
